

God in the Storm: Worship

(based on Kurt White's sermon:
Worship in the Storm)

How do you relate to God when you are in a storm? Do you worship Him?

Do you ask God to help you follow Him when you are in a storm?

- Read Psa 86:11.
- Do you tell God that you are aware He knows more than you do?
- Do you ask Him to teach you His way?
- Do you tell Him you will listen and do what He says?
- Read Psa 119:73.
- Do you pause and ask for His guidance during a storm?

Do you promise God you will praise Him with all your heart?

- Read Psa 86:12.
- Do you desire to walk as God wants?
- Will you commit to praise Him with all your heart?
- Will you commit to glorify His name forever?
- Read Psa 103:1-2.
- Do you remember all He has done for you?
- Do you remember how He has guided you through storms in the past?

Do you praise God for His mercy?

- Read Psa 86:13.
- Do you ask God to unite your mind, heart, and soul to pursue Him?
- How often do you praise God for His mercy toward you?
- Do you realize that God doesn't punish His followers to the full extent of their sins, Psa 103:10?

Is it well with your soul?

- Horatio Spafford wrote the hymn "It Is Well with My Soul," after the loss of his four daughters. God had taught him to say, "It is well with my soul" regardless of the storm.
- Do you know that your help only comes from the Lord, Psa 25:5?
 - Do you long to glorify His name?
 - Do you have peace in knowing, loving, and following Jesus Christ?
- Is it well with your soul?
