Cautious, Curious, or Committed

John Maxwell says there are three types of followers, "the cautious, the curious, and the committed." Jesus didn't beg others to follow Him. In fact, when the numbers grew large, He began to test for their level of commitment, Mat 8:18-27.

To see where His followers stood:

- Jesus first clarified what it meant to follow Him including the necessary sacrifices, Mat 8:18-22.

- Next, He demonstrated good reasons for them to follow Him, Mat 8:23-27.

If you are a Christ-follower:

- Are you clear on what it takes to be fully committed to Christ, including the sacrifices?

- Do you focus on the good reasons to follow Him? How often do you thank Him for His love, His power, and His grace?
